

Fire Mountain
Arts Council

Enriching our community life through the arts

Since our beginnings in 1986, we have continued to bring exciting theatre, theatre education, and venues for the arts to Lewis County. The arts council operates:

- The Roxy Theater, built in 1937 and recently renovated through the efforts many volunteers and donors, this jewel of downtown Morton offers plays, concerts, movies, and OnStage children's programs.
- Tiller Arts Center, adjacent to the Roxy Theater and with its classic ballroom and kitchen, hosts dance and theatre classes, dinner theatre, weddings, parties, and meetings. 360-496-5672
- Barbara Clevenger Johnson Art Gallery at the Roxy Theater features emerging and established regional artists and sells their quality paintings, photography, sculpture, pottery, woodwork, etchings, basketry, fiber art, and jewelry. 360-496-0542 www.bcjgallery.org

Fire Mountain Arts Council is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization dependent upon our donors, volunteers, and members. All donations are tax deductible. Thanks to our dedicated patrons!
